Insurance Clause

The Bidder shall ensure coverage at its sole expense under the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 (as amended to date) for all its employees required to perform services for or in any way associated with FIAPL. Alternatively, the Bidder shall obtain collectable insurance policy through any reputed Indian insurance company for benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923.

All vehicles used by the Bidder whether owned or hired, shall carry suitable vehicle insurance Comprehensive and/or Third Party Liability Insurance as required under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988.

Additionally, the Bidder shall indemnify and keep FIAPL indemnified against all losses, expenses, costs, penalties or other levies imposed by any Government authority for asserted violation of any laws by the Bidder imposed upon FIAPL.

The fulfillment of the insurance obligations under this Agreement will not relieve the Bidder of its liability or in any way modify the Bidder's obligations under this Agreement, including its liability for indemnification as stated above.

Collectable insurance obtained by the Bidder may not necessarily be adequate to cover exposure to loss and/or damage and shall not limit the Bidder maximum liability under this Agreement. The Bidder shall always be financially responsible for the deductibles, retentions, co-insurance, premiums, and claims or losses in excess of collectable insurance. The Bidder shallbe solely responsible for ensuring that its subcontractors obtain and maintain at least similar insurance coverage or better required of the Bidder in the section above.

Upon FIAPL request, the Bidder shall forthwith provide evidence of the required insurance coverage. FIAPL's failure to request, review or object to the terms of such insurance coverage cannot be deemed a waiver of its obligations or rights and shall, in no way limit or diminish the Bidder liability under the other provisions of this Agreement.

Code of Conduct

FIAPL has a Code of Conduct that lays down standards of relationships of employees of FIAPL with stakeholders including its consultants, bidders, suppliers and customers. The Code mandates ethical, fair and transparent dealings by FIAPL, its employees and other stakeholders with outsiders making fair and ethical business practices the backbone of FIAPL's dealings with outsiders. Outsiders dealing with FIAPL in general and its employees and stakeholders in particular are expected to abide by the highest standards of conduct and ethical behavior and are obliged to report all non-conformities.

In case of any suspected violations of FIAPL's Code of Conduct or observed instances of general ethical compromise, the same should be immediately brought to the notice of the Chief Ethics Counsellor on anil.joshi@fiapl.com and +91 98200 00818.

Copy of FIAPL's Code of Conduct can be obtained from the Chief Ethics Counsellor or the Human Resources Department of FIAPL.
